

PERSONAL OPINION

Erik, just like the three “monsters” above suffered because of his horrible appearance. What about you? How important is a person’s physical appearance? Talk about this with your partner, and then present your ideas to the class. Use these questions to help you.

- Do you want your boyfriend or girlfriend to be attractive?
Actually I don’t mind if my boyfriend or girlfriend is attractive because there are more important things than this one, also everybody is attractive for someone and it’s not for another one.
- How important are the clothes a person wears?
From my point of view, everyone wears what they want so for me it’s not important.
- Do you want your friends to be attractive?
I don’t mind if they are because if anything happens to me I know that they’ll be there for me, that’s the main point of friendship.
- How do you react to a person who has a serious physical disability?
At first I’ll be shocked but if that person needs help I’ll help him or her.
- How do you think most people in your school react?
Well some of them like superficial things like clothes, beauty, etc. But most of them look more in deep in other people to know them better.
